ABOUT SUFFERING TO SILENCE

DEDICATION

This historical presentation is respectfully dedicated to the Officers and Men of the 29th Texas Cavalry Regiment, Confederate States of America. They received no glory, yet they suffered all the pain and privations of war fare. For the Confederate soldiers, and for the South, the war terminated in a long Silence.... Indeed, Suffering was their cross and Silence was their creed.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

JOHN C. GRADY JR., compiled the material for "Suffering to Silence ." His Great-Grandfather and name-sake , John Grady , who was born in Ireland in 1837, Served in the 29th Texas Cavalry CSA Company B, organized in Denton County, Texas. John C. Grady Jr. is a member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, Dallas , Dallas County, Texas.

BRADFORD K. FELMLY, a native of New Jersey, a long time Civil War enthusiast. In 1968, when 18 years old, he founded the Confederate Memorial Historical Research Council, a national and later international Civil War research and literary society.

I have a copy of this publication in our CAMP LIBRARY. It is a great research tool, and a great publication. They have preserved the history of the 29th Texas Cavalry Regimental History for us all. The Publication has not been reprinted since it's release in 1975. It is a rare Book and can be acquired for a price. My deepest gratitude, to the authors, for preserving the History of the 29th Texas Cavalry. I also, along with these men, hope to bring more light, on the History of The 29th Texas Cavalry. It is my GOAL to find out were all the TROOPERS of the 29th Texas Cavalry are buried, in which I have located many of them, and is a work still in progress.
