Commander Bobby W. Smith

Fellow Compatriot's,

I'm so looking forward to the upcoming fall events. We are intending for our camp to participate in the upcoming Re-Enactment Events, I hope camp members can and will participate. These events cover areas of interest to our camp The 29th Texas Cavalry, for it is events of the Civil War where the 29th Texas Cavalry fought and participated in. It is the history of the 29th Texas Cavalry and other regiments that fought with them in the Indian Territory. I encourage camp members and friends to make plans to step back in time, as these events will allow you to see what it was like during this time of our history, and ancestors who walked and fought on these grounds. ( See Upcoming Events).

CHARGE TO THE SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

"To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish."

Civil War Weekend
Liendo Plantation
Hempstead, Texas

Several Confederate Military Facilities were positioned near Hempstead, an important railroad junction, during the Civil War. Camp Groce was a prisoner-of-war stockade established on the plantation of Leonard Waller Groce (1806-1873), originally Liendo Plantation.

Near the end of the war 1865 most Texas Regiments were ordered to Camp Groce, to protect the Texas Coast Lines from Union invasion, into Texas. This is were most Texas Troops were Disbanded, and sent home, ending the war.

Camp Groce, Liendo Plantation

Liendo Plantation is an historic cotton plantation in Waller County, Texas, United States. It was added to the National Register of Historic Places on June 21, 1971. Named for original owner José Justo Liendo, the land was sold in 1841 to Leonard Waller Groce. In 1873, the plantation was sold to artist Elisabet Ney and her physician husband Edmund Montgomery. Ney is buried on the grounds. In 1936, Liendo was designated Recorded Texas Historic Landmark Number 9396. In 1964, RTHL Number 9395 was placed on the property.
