EVENTS

2018 Jefferson Civil War Days

Join the whole town for the annual Jefferson Civil War Days on May 5-6, 2018 in Jefferson, Texas for a Civil War reenactment that includes the town, the Historic Jefferson Railroad and much more! The Historic Jefferson Railway captures the spirit of the Civil War during Pilgrimage & Civil War Weekend in Jefferson, by recreating the battle of the Great Locomotive Chase with soldiers, sailors and Marines from the North and South. The Living History camps along the Big Cypress Bayou come alive as the cannons fire and the battle rages to gain possession of the train.

Start: May 4

End: May 6

Cost: $15

May 4th

Friday: School Day

Friday there will be a Day of Learning for school groups, sponsored by the Marion County Chamber of Commerce, to draw attention to the history and romance of the Civil War way of life. The Living History Camps will demonstrate Camp Life and Military Activities and includes a live steam train ride aboard the Historic Jefferson Railway as the story of The Andrews Raid unfolds alongside the Big Cypress Bayou. See a gunboat with real live cannons Visit Diamond Don Gator Pit with live gators and see ruins from the 1800's. Price for Living History is $3 per student; train ride is additional $5 per student.
