To you,
Sons of Confederate Veterans . . .

. . . "To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the Cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish. Are you also ready to die for your country? Is your life worthy to be remembered along with theirs? Do you choose for yourself this greatness of soul?"

"Not in the clamor of the crowded street,
Not in the shouts and plaudits of the throng,
But in ourselves are triumph and defeat." . . .

From a speech by Confederate Gen. Stephen D. Lee, presiding officer at the 16th Annual Reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, New Orleans, Louisiana,
April 25th - 27th, 1906.
