W. W. Heartsill

Compatriots:

We heard at our last meeting about the Confederate soldier and his families hardships during Christmas time of the Civil War from Mark Vogl. We were glad to have Joey Hudson back in the Camp and he bought his son Owen with him. He also turned in the applications for Owen and his brother Hart. New young members are always a plus for us. 9 of us met at Greenwood and we set the VA markers for 2 Confederate Veterans whose grave are now marked. We will have the SCV Past Commander and Chief Paul Gramling and his wife Linda join us at our next meeting. He will be updating us on what has happened in the Confederacy over the last year. Bring your wives and family to hear the good news about the Sons of Confederate Veterans. I wish you a Happy New Year for 2022. The next upcoming work days will be an inventory of those buried at Marshall Cemetery and a cleanup day at Greenwood where we will cut some brush and growth from the plots in a couple sections like we did last year at Marshall Cemetery.

Bill Elliott, Commander

Setting up for the meeting

Mark Vogl presents Christmas in the Confederacy 1860-1865

Camp presents a plaque in appreciation to Mark. Wishing all members a Merry Christmas

Hometown Heroes: Col. William McDonald Bruce 1812-1888

Thanks to Mrs. Ann Brannon for applying for marker.

The write up from Find a Grave: William M. Bruce, born on Dec. 11, 1812, Dumfries, Dumfries and Galloway, Scotland.

Kinship to Robert the Bruce, the King of Scotland and Edward Bruce, the King of Ireland. Citizen of the Republic of Texas, and a Texas Ranger. In hopes of a better life, William and his family immigrated to the United States in 1818 when he was 5 years old. In 1836 he came alone to Texas with the intent of fighting in the Battle of San Jacinto, the decisive battle of the Texas Revolution, which lasted only eighteen minutes. Santa Anna, the President of Mexico was captured and three weeks later signed the peace treaty which led to the establishment of the Republic of Texas as an independent nation. Bruce, believing the wars was over in Texas, returned home, but came back to Texas with his family in March of 1839 and settled in Nacogdoches County, only to find the newly established Republic was soon to be embroiled in a battle with the Cherokee, Shawnee, Kickapoo, and Delaware Indian tribes of Eastern Texas. He joined the Texas Rangers under the command of Captain Alexander Jordan, and for two years served as a "Mounted Ranger" and helped police the rogue Indians of East Texas from the area around Tyler, Texas to the present day Van Zandt County. It was in Van Zandt County, at the Neches River, on July 16, 1839. That battle culminated with the Cherokee leader, Chief Bowl being killed. The remainder of the Cherokees and their allies fled Texas to the Arkansas Territory (present day Oklahoma) The Battle of the Cherokees was over. His first child, daughter Mary Jane, was born in Nacogdoches in 1841 and soon after, Bruce moved his family to Arkadelphia, Arkansas, where among other jobs he was Justice of the Peace, Photographer, Postmaster and a tailor. Bruce was elected Colonel Commandant of the 28th Regiment, 1st Brigade in the Arkansas Militia in 1854 and later, at the request of Governor Rector of Arkansas, formed the "Arkadelphia Guards" who were to remain in and for the protection of Arkadelphia. One enlisted in the militia could not "transfer" into the Confederate Army, so Col. Bruce resigned his commission and command as Colonel in the Militia and accepted an appointment by the President of the Confederacy, Jefferson Davis, as an Adjutant with the rank of 1st Lieutenant of the 12th Arkansas Infantry. He left the war as a Lieutenant and in 1865, moves back to Texas and opened and operated the first photography studio in the East Texas town of Marshall. He was one of the first photographers in the world to make a plate of the moon. He sired 6 children with Edith, his wife of 50 years. Bruce was preceded in death by 3 sons. He was originally interred in the Marshall City cemetery, but later moved to Greenwood when his wife Edith passed away in 1892. He died in 1888 and is buried in a unmarked grave in Greenwood Cemetery, Marshall, Harrison County, Texas.

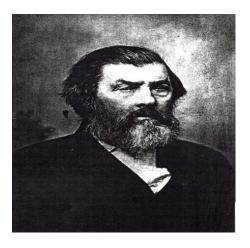

William H. Rockett: 1836-1918, 19th MS. Inf. Regt.

Again we thank Mrs. Ann for her work applying for these markers.

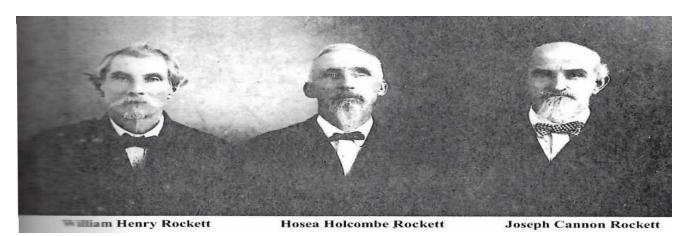

William MacDonald Bruce

William H. Rockett was born on March 28, 1836 in Jefferson County Alabama.

He joined the CSA on May 23, 1861 along with his brother Hosea at Spring Port, Panola County Mississippi. Spring Port was in Northwest MS. and is no longer there. The where shipped to the Old Fairgrounds in Richmond, Virginia in June of 1861 where state units were combined to form regiments. William and Hosea were assigned to Company G which was placed in the 19th Regiment of the Mississippi Infantry. The 19th was the same Regiment my ancestor Captain I. Q. Perry was in Company A. The rosters for the 19th shows that in September of 1861 both William and Hosea were in the hospital in Richmond. The Company roster for October shows that on October 10th William was discharged for medical reasons and on October 13th Hosea was also discharged. William married in 1869 and with his wife Mary Catherine had 9 children in 17 years. The 1880 and 1900 Census shows him in Mississippi as a Farmer-Carpenter. The 1910 Census show them in Pct. 3 in Marshall living with their daughter and son in law. Below the 3 Rockett Brothers

How Do I Join The Sons of Confederate Veterans?

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans. Organized at Richmond, Virginia in 1896, the SCV continues to serve as a historical, patriotic, and non-political organization dedicated to ensuring that a true history of the 1861-1865 period is preserved. Membership in the Sons of Confederate Veterans is open to all male descendants of any veteran who served honorably in the Confederate armed forces. Membership can be obtained through either lineal or collateral family lines and kinship to a veteran must be documented genealogically. The minimum age for full membership is 12, but there is no minimum for Cadet Membership.
