Bring A Friend!

Dispatch From The Commander...

Compatriots,

As the October meeting approaches I am pleased to note that we have all experienced the first significant temperature change of the season. Upper 70 degree days and lows in the upper 50's after a long Summer always brings refreshing and excitement. The changes also bring more opportunity to get involved in area grave dedications, and Fall events that promote Southern history and culture. I encourage all of you to take a look at the upcoming events to held in our area and to get involved as your schedule allows.

This month we have Jerry Haynes coming to speak to our camp. Jerry always does a great job of both informing and entertaining us. His presentation is one you will not want to miss. I will see you this coming Tuesday.

Until we meet... forward the colors!

W. Michael Hurley, Commander

Former Past Commander in Chief Chuck McMichael Speaks at our September Meeting...

We were honored to hear Church McMichael speak to us last month. Commander McMichael gave us an update on the SCV's strategy and work to defend our heritage. He did an excellent job and all who attended were encouraged.

How Do I Join The Sons of Confederate Veterans?

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans. Organized at Richmond, Virginia in 1896, the SCV continues to serve as a historical, patriotic, and non-political organization dedicated to ensuring that a true history of the 1861-1865 period is preserved. Membership in the Sons of Confederate Veterans is open to all male descendants of any veteran who served honorably in the Confederate armed forces. Membership can be obtained through either lineal or collateral family lines and kinship to a veteran must be documented genealogically. The minimum age for full membership is 12, but there is no minimum for Cadet membership.
