Bring A Friend!

Dispatch From The Commander...

Compatriots,

For many of us, November brings with it the start of the busiest time of the year. With Thanksgiving right around the corner and the Christmas season immediately following it is often a time for travel, family gatherings, and shopping at the local mall.

However, the work of the camp continues as we must remain diligent in our efforts to defend the Confederate soldiers good name. I am looking forward to seeing all of you at our upcoming meeting. We will be sharing with you the plans for a first Lee Jackson Banquet in January, which will involve our families and wives invited to attend. It is a meeting not to be missed.

Please come and share your insight on the work of the camp. Remember it is your camp and up to you to see that it succeeds.

Until we meet... forward the colors!

W. Michael Hurley, Commander

Proclamation of Thanksgiving, 1861
by President Jefferson Davis

WHEREAS, it hath pleased Almighty God, the Sovereign Disposer of events, to protect and defend us hitherto in our conflicts with our enemies as to be unto them a shield.

WHEREAS, with grateful thanks we recognize His hand and acknowledge that not unto us, but unto Him, belongeth the victory, and in humble dependence upon His almighty strength, and trusting in the justness of our purpose, we appeal to Him that He may set at naught the efforts of our enemies, and humble them to confusion and shame.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States, in view of impending conflict, do hereby set apart Friday, the 15th day of November, as a day of national humiliation and prayer, and do hereby invite the reverend clergy and the people of these Confederate States to repair on that day to their homes and usual places of public worship, and to implore blessing of Almighty God upon our people, that he may give us victory over our enemies, preserve our homes and altars from pollution, and secure to us the restoration of peace and prosperity.

Given under hand and seal of the Confederate States at Richmond, this the 31st day of October, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-One.

By the President, JEFFERSON DAVIS

How Do I Join The Sons of Confederate Veterans?

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans. Membership in the Sons of Confederate Veterans is open to all male descendants of any veteran who served honorably in the Confederate armed forces. Membership can be obtained through either lineal or collateral family lines and kinship to a veteran must be documented genealogically.
