2023 SCV, ATM Superior Camp Winner

Compatriots and my Brothers All:

We had a little different style meeting. The Dinner Belle has lost their evening cook and has not found one before our meeting. Mrs. April made us a buffet meal of Salmon patties, smother pork chops and chicken spaghetti with 4 vegetables and rolls. It worked out well and all had plenty. We watched a recruitment video from 2006 that the ANV, SCV put together. Very well done for it's era.

Our Camp had a good work day on Nov. 18th that a few got a lot done in a couple of hours. The view coming in on the east side looks better. We hope to have more of these Saturday morning work days as we are making a difference in the appearance. I thank Tom, Pete, Dick, Daryl and Albert for giving of their time. We had a couple walking by came up and talked to us and they like our flags. Another gentleman come by to check on his grandparents graves and we visited with him about becoming a member and he thanked us for caring about those buried at Greenwood. We are making Marshall better with our work. As Christmas approaches please remember Jesus is the reason for the season.

HOMETOWN OF TEXAS CONFEDERATE GOVERNOR EDWARD CLARK (1863)—Old Courthouse Grounds, Peter Whetstone Square

1815-1880. Son of a Georgia Governor. Came here in 1842. Member Annexation Convention. First and Second Texas Legislatures. Participant Mexican War. Secretary of State 1853-57. Elected Lieutenant Governor 1859. Made Governor 1861 upon removal of Governor Sam Houston, who opposed secession. Clark's major activity was mobilizing Texas in cause of Confederacy. Plans were made to prevent Federal invasion, take over enemy property, organize resources to provide supplies and arms for defense, and to properly care for families of Texas soldiers battling at the front.

Opposite side: Gov. Edward Clark's term from March to November 1861 also faced difficulties caused by mechanics of changing flags, seals, currency, postal and tax systems for membership in new nation. Camps of instruction were set up over state to enroll, equip, and train troops. Hardest job was to convince Texans, the best horsemen in the world, that all could not ride on cavalry but some must be foot-soldiers in infantry. The C.S.A. was supplied guns, powder, lead, and cloth made in penitentiary, salt, and 20,000 troops in his term. In late 1861 he raised and became colonel 14th Texas Infantry Regiment. Led units in Arkansas-Louisiana campaigns to prevent invasion of Texas. Wounded and commended Battle of Pleasant Hill, April 1864. Discharged 1865. Postwar lawyer, businessman. Buried in Marshall Cemetery. A memorial to Texans who served the Confederacy.

Erected by the State of Texas 1964.

Pictures from the past here in Marshall

This photo was provided by the Harrison County Historical Museum to The Portal to Texas History.

South Marshall School 1917. I bet there are some children or grandchildren of Confederate Veterans in this picture?

Compatriot Jimmy Moore

Brothers: I am asking for prayers for Brother Jimmy Moore and Lady Glenda Moore. Jimmy is a member of the Gen. Gregg Longview Camp and was diagnosed with cancer in October. He has had surgery to remove a mass behind his stomach and spine area but it has already spread thru out. Jimmy is at a nursing home in Pine Tree and I visited him on Monday 11/25 and it does not look good for Jimmy. As I am putting this together I received info that he might last about 5 more days

Jimmy has attended several of our meetings and has presented a program on the work the old W.P. Lane SCV camp about repairs and cleaning at Marshall Cemetery in the 1990's. Jimmy and Glenda were volunteers at the Harrison County Museum in past days and the have donated to our Flag Fund and the Col. Burke marker fund. In days past Jimmy headed up the Texas Division Honor Guard and traveled all over the State giving honor to SCV events. Please pray for Jimmy and Glenda in their time of need.

How Do I Join The Sons of Confederate Veterans?

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans. Organized at Richmond, Virginia in 1896, the SCV continues to serve as a historical, patriotic, and non-political organization dedicated to ensuring that a true history of the 1861-1865 period is preserved. Membership in the Sons of Confederate Veterans is open to all male descendants of any veteran who served honorably in the Confederate armed forces. Membership can be obtained through either lineal or collateral family lines and kinship to a veteran must be documented genealogically. The minimum age for full membership is 12, but there is no minimum for Cadet Membership.
